THE ENROLLMENT LAST YEAR AND THIS YEAR.

INCREASE IN ALL SCHOOLS

New Boundary Lines Established and Will Be Followed to the Letter.

Superintendent G. V. Buchanan and Secretary A. T. Fleischmann paid a visit to each of the nine schools in the city this morning, and when seen by a DEMOCRAT reporter at the noon hour were in a cheerful frame of mind over the outlook for a successful year's work.

The total enrollment yesterday shows an increase in every school over what it was on the opening day last year. The largest increase is in Summit school, 89, and the smallest in Southwest Sedalia, 1. Following are comparative figures of the enrollment on the opening days of 1892 and 1893:

SCHOOLS.	1893.	1892.
Broadway	561	545
Franklin	175	155
Southeast	136	116
Summit	556	467
Prospect	388	375
Central Primary	80	72
Northeast	165	160
Southwest	91	90
Lincoln	272	270

Total 2424 2250
The increase this year over a year ago is 174—a very creditable showing, indeed.

NEW BOUNDARIES.
There has been some complaint regarding the school boundaries, so new lines have been established, as follows:

Northeast Sedalia comprises all that part of the district lying north of the Missouri Pacific road and east of Hancock street.

Franklin district comprises all that part of the district lying west of Hancock street, north of Missouri Pacific road and east of Grand avenue.

Summit district comprises all that part of the district lying south of the Missouri Pacific and east of the M., K. & T. and narrow gauge railroads south to Twelfth street.

Southeast Sedalia comprises that part lying south of Thirteenth street and east of the narrow gauge railroad.

Southwest Sedalia, all lying south of Thirteenth street and west of the narrow gauge railroad.

Central primary, bounded on the east by the M., K. & T., on the north by the Missouri Pacific, on the west by the center of Kentucky to Sixth street, east on Sixth to Ohio street, south on Ohio to the alley between Seventh and Eighth streets, east on said alley to the M., K. & T.

The boundary lines separating Broadway and Prospect districts are as follows: For grades 1, 2 and 3, west from Kentucky street, on Fifth street to Grand avenue, south on Grand avenue to Sixth street, thence west to the district limits.

For all other grades the boundary between the two districts is as follows: Beginning at the M., K. & T. on the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets running thence west to Ohio street, south on Ohio street to the alley between Sixth and Seventh streets, thence south to Moniteau street, thence south to Seventh street, thence west to Grand avenue, thence south to Broadway, thence west to district limits.

All permits heretofore granted to children to attend a school in a district in which they do not reside have been revoked and the superintendent is not authorized to grant a permit under any circumstances.

No Truth In It.
Mr. John Kurtz, residing at No. 919 East Sixth street, called at the DEMOCRAT office this morning and denied that there was any truth in a statement made about him in the morning paper. Mr. Kurtz is employed as a blacksmith at the M., K. & T. shops, and is well and favorably known.

Election of Officers.
J. L. George, of the board of managers of the insane asylum at Nevada, was in the city this morning, on his way to Moberly. The board held a meeting yesterday and elected the following officers: D. C. Kennedy, of Springfield, president.

Dr. J. F. Robinson, of Windsor, superintendent.
Drs. J. L. Warren, of Pleasant Hill, and G. P. True, of Nevada, assistants.

Capt. A. Cummings, steward.
Joseph Harper, treasurer.
Miss Hannah Fitzgerald, matron.

Appointments by Governor Stone.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 5.—Governor Stone yesterday appointed Colonel Elijah Gates inspector of oils for the city of St. Joseph for a term ending June 25, 1895. The governor also appointed William F. Claiborne judge of the county court of Camden county, vice W. H. Snider, deceased.

FRIGHTFUL!

MANY LIVES LOST IN A RAIL-WAY COLLISION.

The Big Four's World's Fair Excursion Train Smashed Into Splinters.

Special to the DEMOCRAT.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 5.—The Big Four World's fair excursion train of ten Wagner sleepers, loaded chiefly with people from Cincinnati, collided with a north bound express freight train near Aurora, Ind., early this morning, causing a most disastrous wreck.

Ten to twenty people are reported killed and thirty injured.

The railway officials are very reticent about the accident and refuse to give any details of the catastrophe. Enough is known, however, to justify the belief that it is one of the worst wrecks of the summer and the loss of life is fearful.

ARRESTED FOR ADULTERY

Clay Skillman Taken in Custody Here Today.

Clay Skillman, a young man of 26 years, was arrested here this afternoon by Acting Constable Samuel Lockney, of Houstonia, charged with having accomplished the ruin of Lockney's daughter, Vena, aged 20, under the promise of marriage, and then having persuaded her to consent to having an abortion produced.

The latter crime is alleged to have been committed last November, but soon afterwards Skillman fled from this section of the country and returned only recently.

DEMOCRAT readers are familiar with the case, as all the facts connected therewith were published a few weeks ago.

Skillman was taken to Houstonia this afternoon and will have a preliminary hearing there before Justice Wethers next Friday.

DALTON'S WOUNDS FATAL.

Reports From the Outlaws Say That All Are Wounded and Three Will Die.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 5.—Officers coming in from the chase of the Dalton gang of outlaws last night report that no further trace of the fleeing men has been found.

On Saturday night a doctor of Stillwater was called to see a sick woman, but when he arrived a short distance from town two armed men took charge of him, and after swearing him to secrecy under penalty of death, they conducted him many miles to the outlaws' camp, where he dressed the wounds of the injured men. He was gone nearly twenty-four hours and refuses to say anything that would give any clue as to the whereabouts of the gang.

He states, however, that every member of the gang who was in the Ingalls fight was badly injured and three will die. Bill Dalton has a broken arm, a bullet in his leg and a hole clear through his groin, and cannot survive. Bill Doolin was shot twice through the body. There are now three marshals and three citizens of Ingalls dead and two more in a serious condition.

John Mix, Sherman Sanders, George Perrin, Samuel Murray, Mr. and Mrs. George Ramson, George, John, Sam and Frank Case, all citizens of Ingalls, were lodged in the United States jail here last night, charged with the aiding the outlaws.

Willing to Discount.

Contractor Church is anxious to begin the paving of West Fifth street at the earliest possible moment, and with that object in view he is obtaining the signatures of such property owners as are willing to pay their tax bills as soon as the work is completed, in consideration of the contractor giving a 10 per cent reduction for the cash. Quite a number have signed the paper, and Mr. Church hopes a sufficient number of others will do so to enable him to go ahead with the work.

BROWN WANTS HIS WIFE.

OR AT LEAST WANTS TO TALK WITH HER.

The Ex-Constable from Topeka Comes To Sedalia to See What He Can Learn.

Albert Brown, the Topeka, Kas., ex-constable, who recently caused the arrest here of his wife and Clarence F. Pike, on the charge of adultery, on which charge they were acquitted, is again in the city, having arrived last evening.

Brown's wife has left him for good, she says, but he appears loth to give her up—at least his movements lead to such belief.

Since their acquittal Pike and Mrs. Brown have been stopping at Mrs. Franklin's boarding house, opposite the court house, on Ohio street, and so far as known there has been nothing improper between them.

Brown located the couple at Mrs. Franklin's last night and called there and secured a room. He evidently expected to learn something derogatory to his wife's character, but was disappointed.

It is said he sat up the greater portion of the night, with the expectation of catching Pike in Mrs.

A COUNT OF NOSES.

Figures as to Homeseekers Now on the Border—Their Number Exaggerated.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kas., Sept. 5.—In view of the fact that many conflicting reports have been sent to the larger dailies throughout the north and east concerning the number of homeseekers along the Kansas border of the Cherokee strip by persons who have a pecuniary interest in attracting settlers to their several locations, a representative of the Associated press was detailed to make an investigation of the truth or falsity of the different reports.

Brown's apartment, but was again disappointed.

Mrs. Brown is afraid of her husband, so kept out of his way last night, but this morning he insisted on seeing her, and a policeman was sent for to remove him. This was sufficient and he left, but announced that he intended remaining until Friday, and in the meantime he may furnish a first class item.

Pike, in conversation with a DEMOCRAT reporter today, stated that since his defeat in the courts here Brown has left nothing undone to injure the reputation of his wife, who was forced to leave him because of his brutal treatment of her. He has written to her relatives, Pike says, referring to her as a prostitute, and the belief is that he came here to see if he could not make his charges good.

In compliance with the instructions given, a trip extending from Arkansas City to the line immediately south of Anthony, a distance of sixty-five miles, was made, and it may be said with absolute certainty that there are today less than 5,000 people including the residents of the cities and towns who expect to make a run for claims either on the broad acres or for town lots in the vast country to be opened on the 16th inst.

A thorough investigation at the camps and by interviews with merchants who supply the settlers shows that less than 2,000 homeseekers are in and around Arkansas City. At Gueda Springs, eight miles west, there are about 100; Hunnewell, 500; South Haven, fifty; Portland, seventy-five; Caldwell, 350; Bluff City, 100; Anthony, 150, and probably 1,200 or 1,500 along the ravines and creeks between the towns named.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

The Republic complains that "no train robber has ever been hanged, legally or illegally."

CHOLERA has broken out in England and we may expect its early appearance in New York. Anything that is English goes.

THE DEMOCRAT wants to see the streets of Sedalia improved, with or without a roller. But candor compels the admission that if better progress is not made in the future than has been made during the past six months it will take a steam roller a long time to pay for itself.

THE DEMOCRAT has the same advice to give in regard to the St. Louis festivities that it gave in regard to the World's fair: Don't go unless you have the money to spare! There is use in Sedalia for every dollar her people own. The business men want it and the working men need it.

THE United States set the precedent of paying its soldiers in greenbacks and its interest on bonds in gold, but that is no reason why Sedalia should pay its laborers and the merchants from whom it buys supplies in legal tender money and its bonds in gold. Let's have one money for all.

THE worst thing about the Frisco train robbery, says the Springfield Leader, is the fact that the men if caught will not be hanged unless lynched. Capital punishment does not go in Kansas for fear it might hurt the feelings of some of the families of such people as the red handed murderers of the express messenger.

Nashville looks bad to see a democrat, and at Cecil in a democratic city, ended last night, a democratic county, in a demand to work on the "gold bonds," upon at the meeting that is good enough for Louisville on gold, mechanics and laborers.

The money to be good enough for the local money lenders, and legal tender money ought to pay a bond as well as for a day's labor.

THE loyal Sedalian, before he takes a pleasure trip to Chicago, St. Louis or elsewhere, should buy what he needs from his home merchants. They will sell anything that can be found in the stores of the big cities and sell really cheaper than the same article can be purchased in the cities. Your home merchants desire your patronage. The money you spend away from home, could be profitably used in Sedalia.

In the course of his address to the workmen on Labor day, Gov. Altgeld, of Illinois, used this language which should be read by every laboring man: "Classes, like individuals, have their bright and dark days, and just now there seems to be a long dark day ahead of you. It will be a day of suffering and distress, and I must say to you there seems to be no way of escaping it, and I therefore counsel you to face it squarely and bear it with that heroism and fortitude with which an American citizen should face and bear calamity. It has been suggested that the state and the different branches of government should furnish employment during the winter to idle men. Certainly everything that can be done in this line will be done, but I must warn you not to expect too much from this source. The powers of government are so hedged about with constitutional provisions that much cannot be done. The state at present has no work to do. The parks can employ only a few men. The city has work for more men, but it is also limited in its funds. The great drainage canal may, and probably will, give employment to a considerable number of men; but after all you must recognize that these things will be only in the nature of makeshifts, only to tide over, only to keep men and their families from starving. And at this point let me say it will be the duty of all public officials to see to it that no man is permitted to starve on the soil of Illinois, and provisions will be made to that end. But all this is temporary. The laborer must look to ways and means that are permanent for the improvement of his condition when the panic is over, and these measures must be along the line of, and in harmony with, the institutions of this country, and must move by a gradual and steady development. Nothing that is violently done is of permanent advantage to the workingman. He can only prosper when his labor is in demand, and his labor can be in demand only when his employer prospers and there is nothing to interfere with consumption."

SEDALIA'S OPPORTUNITY.

Every Sedalian feels proud of the splendid vitality which the Queen City of the Prairies has displayed during the panic and financial stringency which carried bankruptcy and ruin to so many communities. Sedalia stood the long dull weeks of the past two months without a tremor.

Her banks met every demand upon them, and in some way managed to find money for those of their customers who were hardest pressed for cash.

There has not been a failure in Sedalia for the lack of money—not a failure that could be fairly charged to hard times.

And now that the worst is over; now that the purse strings are being opened everywhere; now that the old stockings, oyster cans and safe deposit boxes everywhere are giving back to trade the money they have hidden for weeks or months; now that the broad corn fields are ready to yield to the husbandman a most generous harvest, now is the time for Sedalia to again take up the line of march which was interrupted by the national calamity.

Good times are knocking at our doors!

Fall trade is ready to begin.

The section tributary to Sedalia is a veritable store house filled with wealth almost ready for the market, and it is a wealth that will be distributed among thousands of families and through them to the stores, the shops and the factories of Sedalia.

Now is the time for the business men by a united display of energy and enterprise to reap the reward of the labor, the thought, the care displayed in weathering the late storm.

Let the old Sedalia vim assert itself! Let the business men vie with each other in their efforts to encourage trade.

Let every Sedalian who is in want of anything buy it from the most enterprising merchant in the city and pay cash for it if possible.

Let every business man put his shoulder to the wheel to start it to moving and then keep it going until the end of the year.

FINANCIAL RELIEF.

The proposition to repeal the prohibitory tax on state banks of issue will bring on one of the hardest contests ever witnessed in congress.

A good, safe law, one liberal enough to satisfy debtor sections and yet strict enough to throw safe guards around the currency it is proposed to issue, will meet with an opposition even more bitter than that which has assailed the free coinage of silver.

If the proposed system can be carried out it will afford even greater relief to the struggling industries in the newer states than could be afforded by the free coinage law.

For instance, if Pettis county desired to spend a million dollars on road improvement under existing circumstances she would have to sell her bonds in New York or New England and send the amount of the interest out of the county every year.

Under the proposed plan the banks could take the bonds, deposit them as security for the circulation and issue the amount of money needed. The interest would be paid at home and return again to circulation in the ordinary channels of trade.

But those who for personal or political reasons desire to see the present money famine continue two or three years will oppose any plan that promises relief, and there are influences in the east that have waxed rich on the interest collected from other sections.

The proposed measure will be looked for with interest especially in the west and south, and if it is found possible to frame a measure that will be safe, just and impartial it will receive a hearty support in the debtor sections.

THE CITY FATHERS.

The Business Disposed of at Last Night's Meeting.

Very little actual business was disposed of at last night's session of the council. The East Sedalia sewer was up, of course, and was temporarily disposed of by the adoption of a resolution to the effect that the contractor be given forty-eight hours in which to complete the work or otherwise it will be done by the city and the contractor left out in the cold for what he has done.

Mr. Hansberger reported favorably on the purchase of the Harrisburg $2400 roller, and an ordinance to that effect was ordered drawn.

E. G. Church's bond for paving West Fourth street was ordered accepted when duly signed and presented, the agreement having been reached that working days shall count only such time as is fit for the prosecution of work.

Claims of Mary Carter for $6,000 and Mose Rainey for $2,000, for damages sustained by falling upon defective walks, were rejected. The claim of W. H. Hughes, $180 for injuries to a horse that lost its hoof in the soft asphalt on Seventh street, was compromised for $70.

The bond for completion of the sewer in district No. 8 was approved. Bids were ordered advertised for, for walks on Missouri avenue. An ordinance providing for issuing $10,000 7 per cent gold special sewer tax bonds was passed.

An ordinance was ordered drawn for good walks, other than plank, on Kentucky street, from the railroad to Broadway. Curbing was ordered advertised for in front of the M., K. & T. property on Third street, and also for walks on both sides of East Third street. Prospect street was ordered graded. A warrant for $80 back salary, was ordered drawn in favor of Assessor Wentzleman.

After allowing bills and disposing of some minor matters, the council adjourned until tomorrow night.

An Oily Dutchman from Chicago Visits Richards.

A few days ago a smooth German drove into the neighborhood of Richards, Mo., fifteen miles east of here, and announced himself as a horse buyer all the way from Chicago, says the Fort Scott Monitor of Saturday. He wanted to buy 200 horses in that neighborhood.

This was a snap for the farmers who had spare animals, and as the buyer was a good judge of horse-flesh, and did not waste much time dickering, trade went forward on the scale of a proverbial land office and in three days the stranger had bought seventy-five head. He was at that time stopping at Arch Thompson's, south of the Osage, but on last Tuesday evening he left there, saying he was going to D. White's farm, on the north side. That was the last seen of him, and his present whereabouts are unknown.

He had advanced no money on the horses, it is needless, perhaps, to state, but was to pay for them when he took them.

The prevailing opinion among the farmers over there is that he borrowed some money of their number previous to his departure, and each thinks some other fellows are in for it, but are ashamed of being confounded and won't squeal. They would like for the man who was taken in to hold up his hand that their doubts may be settled.

But later advices are that he had been operating near Hume, further north, and told the people there that he had made a bet of $4,000 in Chicago that he could make this drive from that city, buy 200 horses and drive back to Chicago in seven weeks. He may be in North Missouri on his return trip by this time.

Through the efforts of Rolla Carroll, Ben Woods and other directors, the Missouri State Poultry association have chosen Warrensburg as the place of holding the next meeting, which will be December 12, 13, 14 and 15.

The association met at Sedalia last year and there was present about 250 poultry men from all parts of the state, and a big effort will be made to have more at the coming meeting. Over 2000 birds will be on exhibition. The place of holding the meeting will probably be under the Magnolia opera house or at Empire hall.

Indian Legend About "Oueta."

In days long past there lived in the west a beautiful Indian girl named "Oueta." She was as good as she was beautiful, and all who saw her loved her. The young men all sought her hand and love, but as she could only give to one she left with her tribe the information of her discovery of the "Oueta" coal (named after her), which is the most wonderful ever known, being equal to the finest grade of anthracite coal in the market; in fact, it is the finest grade of anthracite, and far cheaper. This coal is only handled by the Stanley Coal Co. Call and see them before you order your winter's supply.

A Horse Drops Dead.

Mark Green had a horse that was suffering with colic in the southern part of the city last night and half a dozen people were suggesting different remedies with a view to saving the animal's life. Some one said that coal oil would bring relief, so a quart was poured down the horse's throat, and an instant later the animal dropped dead.

Big Corn.

Mr. James Smith, of the Smithton neighborhood, left at the DEMOCRAT office today some mammoth samples of white corn raised by Eli Palmer, who lives on Shave Tail, seven miles east of the city, and he don't think there is anybody who can beat them.

M. D. Hogan, jr., brought some fine samples of large yellow corn raised on the Wm. M. Gentry farm. Both samples are well matured and the mere sight of the fields from which they were taken is enough to knock out any financial stringency Wall street can get up.

A GRAVE SITUATION.

IT EXISTS ON THE UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM TODAY.

THE OUTLOOK IS GLOOMY.

Items of Interest Picked Up for the Benefit of Readers of the "Democrat."

While no absolute declaration of hostilities has yet been made, the prospects for a general strike on the entire Union Pacific system are most excellent.

The men are not inclined to accept the general reduction of 10 per cent in wages proposed, and in return have made counter propositions to the company. The chief of these is to the effect that the men will lead to the company 10 per cent of their wages, to be returned on January 1, 1894, without interest. No answer has been made to this as yet, it having been submitted only yesterday as the result of meetings of the men held Sunday.

This proposition, the men say, is final and is all they will accept. A representative of the company remarked that such incendiary talk would precipitate a strike sooner than anything else. A visit among the men employed at Omaha yesterday showed them generally united upon the proposition to loan the company 10 per cent of their wages until January 1, 1894.

The men argue that they have felt the sting of hard times as much as the company, reduced train service and bad business during July and August cutting their salaries down considerably.

An utterance by one of the heads of the departments, giving them the cue to anticipate a refusal upon the part of the company to go into the loaning business except through legitimate banking channels, is recalled with pungent significance.

West of the Colorado line the men are in greater straits than in Nebraska or Kansas, and they will fight reduction to the last notch, complicating matters considerably. A peaceful solution of the question is not in sight, and General Manager Dickinson no doubt recognizes this by the very careful and conservative tone he has resumed toward the men in discussing the problems of moment so far as his employees are concerned. While he pooh-poohs any talk of a strike he nevertheless recognizes the gravity of the situation.

Evansville Strike Ended.

The strike inaugurated by the trainmen on the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Evansville, Ind., and at Howell Sunday night ended last night by the men returning to work on the conditions agreed upon at the meeting of the delegates and the company's officials at Louisville on Saturday.

The strike, which was only a local trouble, originated on account of the dissatisfaction of a number of the trainmen who, at the meeting of the trainmen held two weeks ago, were the most bitter and outspoken against the 10 per cent reduction and who urged that the delegates selected to represent the trainmen at the conference with the officials of the road at Louisville should be instructed to oppose the reduction to the bitter end.

The delegates did not return from Louisville as early as was expected, and in the meantime they were most bitter against the agreement, and urged by some of the striking shopmen, succeeded in inaugurating a strike. The delegates arrived home early yesterday morning and soon after went into conference with the men, to whom they gave a full statement of the meeting in Louisville.

The men who were the leaders in the trouble Sunday night expressed themselves as being disappointed at the result of the conference and still favor a strike. The cooler and more reasonable men realize the true state of affairs and agreed to return to work, which ended the trouble. Trains have been running as usual since.

Regarding the Rail.

Will Baisley is home from Nevada, completely restored to health. Conductor Sam J. Lovitt returned to Tipton this morning, after a two days' visit here.

Wes Holmesley, the Missouri Pacific lineman, came in from Lexington this morning.

Conductor W. T. Bulkley, of the Missouri Pacific out of Fort Scott, arrived here this morning for a day's visit.

J. H. Baker, superintendent of telegraph repairs for the Missouri

Pacific, came home last night from a trip west.

Superintendent W. G. Brownlee, of the eastern division of the Missouri Pacific, was a breakfast guest at Kaiser's today.

The Frisco employes at Springfield were paid off yesterday, the wages having been due since the 15th of last month.

Sells Bros.' circus, in charge of Conductors Alcorn and Miller, passed through this morning to Warrensburg, from Lexington.

Wiley Anderson ran for twelve years as postal clerk on the M., K. & T. between Sedalia and Denison and he was never on a train on which a man, woman or child was hurt.—Ft. Scott Tribune.

Russell T. McReory, a Sedalia boy who is now agent for the Pacific Express Co., at Trinidad, Col., writes to have the DAILY DEMOCRAT sent to him there. Mrs. McReory, son George and daughter Laura are now visiting in this section, and as "Russ" cannot have his family with him he wants the next best thing, which is the DAILY DEMOCRAT, of course.

A TWO-YEAR-OLD TRAVELER

Went Alone From Pennsylvania to Her Mother in Missouri.

The youngest child traveler on record arrived at union depot in St. Louis yesterday from Pittsburg.

Her name was Miss Lena Johnson, of Belle Vernon, Fayette county, Pa., and was on her way to Salem, Mo., to her mother.

Around the child's neck was a little clothes bag containing a letter from her father, James F. Johnson, saying the child was 2 years old, and circumstances were such that she was compelled to travel alone and asking the conductors and trainmen to take good care of her. The bag contained her ticket and letters from two or three conductors with whom she had traveled, asking that her mother write them on the safe arrival of the young lady.

The child could not talk plainly, so an account of her trip could not be obtained by a Chronicle reporter. Miss Lena was in good health and excellent spirits, however. After she had made her toilet and eaten a good breakfast she took charge of Mrs. Frazier's corner in the ladies' waiting room and entertained a large and admiring crowd of spectators with her antics until 9 o'clock, when she left over the Frisco.

When she arrives at her destination she will have traveled upward of 1,000 miles alone, a record unequalled by one of her age.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

A Little Six-Year-Old Girl Shot By Her Brother.

News reached this city this morning, says the Warrensburg Star of last evening, of the killing of a six-year-old girl by her brother at their home in Simpson township, about the hour of 6 o'clock yesterday evening, with a double barrel shot gun which the children were playing with.

The parents of the little ones, Mr. and Mrs. Beard, had gone away from home to spend the afternoon and the children had got the gun to play with, not knowing it was loaded, when it was discharged, the full load striking the little girl in the side just below the shoulder, killing her almost instantly. The gun was in the hands of the little eight year old boy when it was discharged. The Beard family lived on the property adjoining Dr. A. W. Cole's farm and had only lived there since about March, coming from Lamonte to this place. The funeral was preached at Fair Oak church this afternoon.

A Winter Poem.

For your coal and wood
That's very good
Try Harris, who keeps the grain,
And give him a show,
If he don't make a blow,
For he'll get there just the same.

My anthracite is the very best,
My soft coal's just the same.
My stove-wood it is all O. K.,
As well as my hay and grain.

So don't forget the place
Where goods are up to grade,
And give R. H. Harris a call,
The hustler in the trade.

Married This Morning.

Orville M. Barnett, the attorney, nephew of Geo. W. Barnett, was married this morning at Edina, Mo., to Miss Maud Smith, a highly accomplished young lady of that place. Soon after the ceremony the happy young couple left for a three weeks' visit to the World's fair, after which they will take up their residence in Sedalia and engage in house-keeping in the Lee Brown property, No. 1014 South Vermont street. The DEMOCRAT's congratulations are extended.

Going to St. Louis.

The Guarantee Investment Co., of Nevada, yesterday decided to remove their general offices from Nevada to St. Louis.

AFTER A PRISONER.

FRANK BARNETT IS AFTER A NOTED ONE.

A TRAIN ROBBER IN HOCK.

Barnett Has Gone to Texas and Will Bring Charlie Myers Back to Missouri.

Missouri Pacific Detective Frank Barnett, of this city, is in San Antonio, Tex., today, and will return the latter part of the week with Charles N. Myers, who, with Jim Francis, robbed a Missouri Pacific train between Lamar, Mo., and Pleasanton, Kas., in January, 1892.

They were pursued by a posse and took refuge in a box car, from where they exchanged shots with their pursuers and in the battle Francis was shot and killed.

Myers was wounded and surrendered. He was taken to Lamar and recovered from his wound in jail. Six weeks after the robbery he was released on bond and when the case came to trial he could not be found.

An alias warrant and a reward of $100 was issued for his arrest, but the Lamar authorities could secure no trace of him. He was arrested in Texas about the 1st of August, and Mr. Barnett will bring him back to Missouri for prosecution.

Francis, who was associated with Myers in the robbery near Lamar, had been, a few months before, connected with a $40,000 train robbery at Glendale, near St. Louis. With him at Glendale were Marion Hedgepeth, Adelbert Slye, "Dink" Wilson and another man. Slye is now in the Jefferson City penitentiary and Hedgepeth is in jail in St. Louis.

Francis went to Kansas City after the robbery and hid in the home of his mother-in-law in Kansas City, Kan. Chief Speers located him and found that Francis' wife had rented and furnished a house near Sixteenth and Tracy in Kansas City. Francis had disappeared, but both houses were watched.

Detectives were quartered in the Tracy avenue house under instructions from the chief awaiting for Francis to appear. Instead there came the news of his death while trying to escape arrest.

Myers at the time lived in Kansas City. He has not, however, been there since jumping his bail at Lamar. His wife still lives in Kansas City and is now keeping a boarding house on the west side.

Myers is known to be one of the toughest characters in the west, and Detective Barnett will have him securely shackled to prevent the possibility of escape while en route to Missouri.

BELIEVE HIM GUILTY.

It Looks As If the Tipton Rapist Was in Custody.

John Weatherby, who was arrested in Boonville Sunday and taken to Tipton, charged with criminal assault upon Miss Treckler, in the northern part of that city on August 28, is believed to be the guilty party.

Among other evidence against him was the finding of a knife where the scuffle took place, the knife being identified by James McClannahan as one he had given Weatherby the day of the assault.

Weatherby had been out of the penitentiary only a few days and came to Tipton three days before he committed the assault. He has been taken to California, Mo., where circuit court is in session, and his case will come before the grand jury at once.

PLAYED WITH SAVAGES.

An Actor's Experience in New Caledonia. With Cannibals for "Supes."

Willett Cobden of Melbourne, Australia, related a tale at Willard's hotel at Washington the other evening illustrative of the extent to which stage realism may be carried.

"I very frequently visited the adjacent islands on matters of business, and on one occasion made a trip to New Caledonia. A pressing invitation was given me to visit the only theater of the settlement, as there was to be an entirely new program for that week entitled 'Oceanica; or the Missionary's Mission,' in which several thoroughbred savages from a cannibal island had been secured to participate. On the evening of the first performance I went to the theater. The first scene represented a desert isle on which a lone mortal had been cast by a wrecked vessel. Night was supposed to come on and he lay him down to sleep on the stage when a wild yell was heard, then a chorus of yells, and on the stage in full view of the audience bounded half a dozen nude savages. The actor lay still as death; the audience, too, were, hushed into silence. The cannibals pounced down on the apparently sleeping man and began their part in good earnest. One big fellow bit him ferociously in the leg, while two others began to twist his neck as if he were a chicken. Meanwhile the victim was not long in discovering that there was a mistake somewhere, and began to shout 'Help! Murder!' at the top of his lungs. Then followed a scene of confusion. The audience beat a hasty retreat through the exits, while the remainder of the troupe dragged the wild men from their mistaken prey. The latter was taken home sadder, but wiser, and the worse for wear.

MIDDLE-AGED ENGLISHMEN.

Their Complaints Due to a Lack of Exercise.

The average middle-aged Englishman of the professional and business classes grows fatter, wheezier, more pompous and more dull and uninteresting every year of his life. To get a laugh out of him is impossible; to crack a joke at his expense is to commit the unpardonable sin. "Poor old porpoise," as somebody has called him.

His innocent pleasures have vanished with his youth, and he has nothing now left to live for but his respectability, his solemn respectability, and his money bags. The contrast between the youthful Englishman and his middle-aged parent is sometimes startling. The former is all life and fun. The latter is a moving mountain of ponderosity and fat. It is all for want of out-door exercise and recreation. Twenty-five years ago the solemn father of to-day was the fun-loving son of a middle aged father.

If anybody had shown him in a prophetic mirror the figure he would cut at the end of a quarter of a century he would have committed suicide in sheer vexation and disgust.

But all this rotundity, wheeziness, irritability of temper, incapacity for work, and general disgust with life and all things in it can be cured, cured easily, and cured forever; and the cure for the vast majority of cases is one or two hours' daily exercise and recreation in the open air.

THE GOSSIP LAND.

Celestials Love to Talk and There Is no Stopping Them.

Woe be unto the inhabitant of China who seek to exclude the rest of the world from the inner secrets of his house! Woe be unto him who imagines he can have secrets! Such a thing as a "private house" in China is unknown. Anyone can go anywhere. The foolish ones shut their doors to shut the gossips out.

"What is going on now?" the old women and even the men demand. "What has he to hide from his fellow townfolk?" As there are no newspapers to furnish the materials for conversation neighbors must afford the subjects of speculation, and so the gossip flourishes.

A Chinaman who can give an accurate census of his relatives and connections has a freak of memory. What he lacks his wife provides. His children marry early and supply all deficiencies.

At 60 he is related to literally hundreds upon hundreds of persons, and all have active recollections of the relationship, and their relatives in turn feel a family interest in the one great man of the family. There is usually at least one shining light somewhere on the domestic horizon, and to this shrine all the curiosity of the enormous community of "friends" journeys.

Jeweled Shoe-Buttons.

It is not unusual now to see silver or gold shoe-buttons on the latest French boots. These are not, of course, put upon walking boots—but on those for carriage, reception, or house wear, when the boot is of velvet, satin or brocade. In some of the French shops jeweled shoe-buttons have appeared, such as turquoise, amethyst, garnets and other stones, set in silver or gold.

In a Cradle of Liberty.

The porters in Boston hotels have furnished a sensation. They have pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor never to take another fee from the man whose trunk they bring down stairs or the woman for whom they find the trunk key she has lost. It they shall remain firm in their resolve they will strike a strong blow at the iniquitous feeding system.

A Fateful Year.

The year 1773 was a fearful one in New York. One hundred and fifty-five cases of sunstroke occurred on July 4 of which seventy-two proved fatal. The principal thoroughfares were like fields of battle. Men fell by the score, and ambulances were in constant requisition.

TWO DUCAL OCULISTS.

Carl Theodor, of Bavaria, is Ably Assisted by His Daughter.

Duke Carl Theodor of Bavaria, is a most charitable man and an extremely clever oculist. He has established three hospitals for persons suffering from diseases of the eyes—one at Meran, one at the Tegensee, and one at Munich. He makes no charges for poor patients, but at the door there is a box into which those who can afford it are expected to place contributions for the good of the poor of the place.

The duke, who is a general in the Bavarian army, was born in 1839, and is a brother of the empress of Austria. In 1874 he married as his second wife the Princess Maria Joseph of Braganza, who assists him in his charitable work. His eldest daughter by his second marriage is the Duchess Sophie, who was born in February, 1875. She has inherited her father's skill, and is his principal assistant in his work as an oculist.

The duke always enters his consulting room by 7 o'clock in the morning and the young duchess takes her share in soothing the sufferers, and enters with enthusiasm into the charitable work.

As an example of the duke's skill, he recently removed a splinter of iron from the eye of an iron-turner, an operation which has defied the skill of several other oculists. The duke is the heir presumptive to the throne of the palatinate of Bravaria, as his elder brother, Ludwig, who married a commoner, has renounced his right.

STANFORD'S HORSES.

How He Revolutionized the Horse-Breeding of the Country.

In employing men to work at Palo Alto, Senator Stanford gave them the most strict orders. They were told never to strike, kick, or whip a horse, and his instructions to his men were: "Always do a thing a little better than anybody else, and you will succeed. When you handle a horse, treat him a little better than any one else. When you breed a horse, breed him to a little better stock each time."

It was in this way that Stanford revolutionized the horse-breeding of the country. He never allowed one of his men to ill-use a horse, and they knew it. There are never noise or blows around the Palo Alto stables and the horses are never frightened. To show his feeling toward his horses, the late Henry Vrooman once told of an occurrence when he was dining with Senator Stanford. Just after dinner one of the drivers insisted that he must see the senator. He was ushered in, with blood over his face, which was badly cut. "John knocked me down," explained the man, referring to one of the trainers.

"What did you do?" asked the senator.

"Nothing," replied the man.

"But you must have done something; I want the truth," persisted the senator.

"I kicked a horse and John knocked me down," said the man.

"Those were John's instructions, and I think he did just right," said the senator.

A Madagascar Wedding.

A brilliant wedding was celebrated at the Madagascar capital recently, the parties to which were the son of the prime minister and the favorite niece of an ex-foreign minister. One hundred slaves owned by the bridegroom attended, dressed in picturesque livery of white and blue. The bride, a coal-black negress, was arrayed in a Paris robe of great magnificence. The wedding took place in the royal chapel and was followed by a banquet and ball in a large tent on the king's grounds. The day following, in accordance with an ancient custom, the bride and bridegroom visited the queen and presented her with a piastre. The festivities continued for several days.

Roofed With Salt.

There is a remarkable lake near St. Dorsk, Siberia, which is completely roofed in by a covering of crystal salt. The lake is nine miles wide and seventeen long, and within the memory of man was entirely roofed over by the salt deposit. Originally, evaporation played the most prominent part in coating the lake over with salt, but at the present time the salt springs which surround it are adding fast to the thickness of the crust. In the long ago, rapid evaporation of the lake's waters left great salt crystals floating on the surface. In course of time these caked together. Thus the waters were finally entirely covered.

Electric Organ and Bible Wagon.

The organist of St. Thomas' church at Taunton will hereafter press an electric button and the electricity will do the rest. This is accounted for by a recent importation of an electric organ which is intended for that church and which arrived at the Boston customhouse the other day. A "bible wagon," another curious importation, arrived at Boston from Glasgow. It is an elaborate affair equipped with seats, book racks, and a high pulpit, which with its high stand can be aimed in any direction. It is highly fashioned and bright with varnish and gilding.

The Picture That Was "Skied."

Several years ago, a London Hebrew, Abraham Solomon, painted a stirring picture, "Waiting for the Verdict," which was exhibited at the royal academy. The artist, not being a royal academican, entitled to annex R. A. to his name, had his painting "skied." All the pictures contributed by that august fraternity were as usual, hung on the line. Thomas Landseer was in ecstasies as he beheld the thrilling scene depicted on canvass, and exclaimed: "There is Solomon in all his glory, but not R. A. I'd like one of these!"

The Constable Was Angry.

"The man who says that I ever told a prisoner that it would be better for him to plead guilty, after being arrested, as has been stated, simply lies and the truth is not in him," said Constable Gossage this morning.

"A communication in this morning's Gazette charges that a colored deputy of mine bulldozed two boys into pleading guilty, but I'll bet ten dollars there isn't a word of truth in the charge. The Gazette people seem to have it in for officers who do their duty, as this isn't the first time the paper has gone out of its way to attack us."

To Mr. and Mrs. Livingston the hearty congratulations of the DEMOCRAT are extended.

A Dead Give Away.

The writer of a communication roasting the justices' courts under the caption of "Official Rotteness" in this morning's Gazette says:

"Such acts are on a par with the outrages elsewhere spoken of, and as a cause can lead to but one effect, namely, that of widening the breach, already wide enough, between the poorer classes and police and other official authority."

The question which naturally occurs to the thoughtful mind is, how did the writer of the communication know what was to be the character of the leading editorial? Is there some intimate spiritual connection between the writer of the communication and the writer of the editorial, or is it simply an instance of great minds running in the same channel.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

The Enforcement of the Weed Ordinance Desired.

To the Editor of the DEMOCRAT.

Physicians say that malarial fevers are on the increase; there must be some cause for this.

We have no stagnant water in the city.

But in my opinion the rank growth of weeds all over the city, and especially on vacant lots, is a breeding place for malaria.

Let the board of health declare such growth of weeds a nuisance and then let the city marshal, by virtue of this order and the city ordinances, at once proceed to make the property owners cut the weeds. OBSERVER.

LIQUORS AND WINES, 112 Osage, Frank Krueger, Manager.

Only One Case.

There was only one case in the police court this morning—Hi Murray, a Kansas City man, who has been employed on the government work on the Osage river. He was fined $10 for late hours and given a stay to leave town.

Indians Spend All Their Money.

REMOKE, I. T., Sept. 5.—The annuity money paid to the Chickasaws in this portion of the territory has almost disappeared. Something near $20,000 has been spent, blown in and stolen in the city, and a round estimate will not place more than $10,000 to their credit in the banks. Of course the money received by them at Tishomingo has been distributed fairly all over this territory and the northern portion of Texas.

Who Will Be Responsible?

"If this street isn't paved before cold weather sets in all of the granite curbing put in this summer will be ruined," said Deloss Niblack to a DEMOCRAT reporter last night. "With one side of the curbing exposed to the elements as it is today it cannot be expected to prove serviceable. In the event of loss to the property owners, who is going to be responsible, Contractor Church or the city of Sedalia?" The DEMOCRAT gives it up.

BUDWEISER BEER ON DRAUGHT, 112 Osage, Frank Krueger Manager. HE'S SUPERINTENDENT NOW.

A. L. Burr at the Head of the St. Charles Gas Works.

A. L. Burr, of this city, who has been in Chicago for some time past, has been appointed superintendent of the gas works at St. Charles, Mo., and has entered upon the duties of the office.

For eight years Mr. Burr was connected with the Sedalia Gas Co., in which capacity he made an excellent reputation for himself. He understands the business thoroughly, and the owners of the St. Charles plant made no mistake when they secured his services.

No doubt "Link's" many Sedalia friends will join the DEMOCRAT in extending congratulations.

LAI'D HIM TO REST.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of Express Messenger Chapman.

JOPLIN, Mo., Sept. 5.—The funeral of Charles A. Chapman, the express messenger who was killed by train bandits near Mound Valley, Kas., Sunday night, took place yesterday afternoon. The body arrived in Joplin at 10:25 Sunday night and was taken to the residence of Mrs. L. Barron, mother of Mr. Chapman's wife. Mrs. M. Singer, mother of the deceased, met the body at the station and a touching scene occurred when the lifeless form of the messenger was borne into the presence of his little family.

The funeral was largely attended. All the express offices were closed while the services were in progress at the First Baptist church and until after the interment. Appropriate floral designs, offerings of employees of the express and railway companies, adorned the casket. The pall bearers were fellow messengers of the deceased.

Chapman was an exemplary young man and had worked his way up from the position of driver by intelligent and faithful service.

NO ENCOUNTER AT ROBY.

Savigne and Griffo Were Not Allowed to Come Together.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 5.—A special to the News, from Crown Point, Ind., says that on application of ex-Supreme Judge Elliott, who, it is understood, was employed by Governor Matthews, Judge Gillett of the Lake county court has appointed Deputy Sheriff B. F. Hayes receiver of the Columbian Athletic club at Roby and authorized him to prevent any fights or exhibitions of boxing or transfer of property. State militia were sent from Warsaw to Roby this afternoon to support the new receiver.

A special from Chicago says: President O'Malley of the Roby Athletic club at 7 o'clock gave out the following to the press: "Judge Gillett has enjoined the Columbian Athletic club. Governor Matthews has camped his troops within sight of Roby, and our attorneys have advised for the present a course of masterly inactivity. Under such stress of circumstances there is but one thing to do—to order a postponement of the contest advertised for tonight. The right of the club under the statute of 1893 to give scientific glove contests has been questioned, and the intervention of the court has been sought with a view to have them declared unlawful. We are anxious to meet the issue in this form and are cheerfully confident of ultimate success. The Columbian Athletic club has come to stay. Its operations are strictly within the letter of the law and the courts of the land will so hold."

The club announces farther that all announced exhibitions will be postponed for three weeks.

The only other business transacted up to 3 o'clock p. m. was allowing warrants and discussing road cases.

Denies the Charge.

Mr. George Cummings hands the DEMOCRAT the following card for publication:

I have made no compact with any candidate or the friends of any candidate for any position in the postoffice under the coming administration, neither have I withdrawn from the race. Any report of this character is false.
